VIII. Area Variance – Reason for Appeal (please answer the following in detail)

(a) Please explain whether your appeal will create an undesirable change in the character of the neighborhood or a detriment to nearby properties.

(b) Please explain whether the benefit sought by your appeal can be achieved by some other method, other than an area variance.

(c) Please describe whether your requested area variance is substantial.

(d) Please explain whether the proposed area variance will have an adverse effect or impact on the physical or environmental conditions in your neighborhood.

(e) Please explain whether your alleged difficulty was self-created.

VIV. Use Variance – Reason for Appeal (please submit answers on separate sheet)

No use variance shall be granted by the Zoning Board of Appeals without the applicant showing that the applicable regulations and restrictions imposed by the zoning code have caused unnecessary hardship. In order to prove such unnecessary hardship please provide evidence regarding the following:

- (a) That under the applicable zoning regulations you are deprived of all economic use and benefit from the property. Appellant must provide the ZBA with competent financial evidence.
- (b) That the alleged hardship relating to your property is unique and does not apply to a substantial portion of the district or neighborhood.
- (c) That the requested use variance will not alter the essential character of the neighborhood.
- (d) That the hardship is not self-created.
